4. An equivalent combination of training and experience as defined by "1", "2" or "3" above.

NOTE: Experience as a qualified building inspector can be substituted for an equivalent amount of the above required experience

Subjects of examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Inspection procedures and principles These questions test for knowledge of the appropriate practices and methods to use when inspecting various types of building facilities and projects, including proper adherence to plans and codes, dealing with residents, owners and contractors, and inspection record keeping.

2. Building construction and rehabilitation These questions test for knowledge of the various methods and materials used when constructing or renovating various types of buildings and their components.

3. Understanding and interpreting building plans and requirements These questions test for the ability to read, analyze and perform computations based on technical drawings and written technical material related to building facilities and projects. All the information needed to answer the questions will be presented in the written material and/or drawings.

4. Building, housing and zoning laws and codes These questions test for knowledge of, and the ability to apply, provisions of the Building and Residential Codes of New York State (and the portions of other codes applicable to these two codes), and the general concepts of zoning, including related laws and regulations.

5. Fire prevention and understanding and interpreting fire codes The fire prevention questions test for a knowledge of fire prevention methods, principles, practices, and equipment. These questions cover such areas as: alarms; automatic smoke/fire detectors; automatic sprinklers; standpipes; dealing with building owners and managers; fire hazards; fire prevention education; and inspection of buildings.

The understanding and interpreting fire codes questions test for the ability to comprehend written material related to fire prevention and inspection. All the information needed to answer the questions will be presented in the passages.

6. Understanding and interpreting written material These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

- RESIDENCY: Candidates must be legal residents of Wayne County for at least ONE month immediately preceding the date of the examination. For some examinations, residency may be waived where recruitment is difficult. A municipality or district may exercise its right under Section 23-4a of Civil Service Law to request a certification of eligible candidates who have been residents of that municipality or district for at least 30 days prior to appointment. After the names of residents have been exhausted, Wayne County must then certify the names of non-residents on the list.
